

Charity

Quotations "Charity begins at home, and justice begins next door."

- Charles Dickens

"But charity is a very complicated thing. It's important to find an area where you can really help and you can feel the results. Charity is not like feeding pigeons in the square. It is a process that requires professional management."

- Roman Abramovich

Questions

- Should it be every citizens duty to give money to charity?
- Is it better to give your time and skills instead of money?
- What charities do you know? What do they do?
- Should the rich and very large companies be forced to give money to charity?
- How much help should the government give?
- Do you ever give money to the homeless? What do they spend the money on?
- Do you ever use charity shops?
- Have you ever taken part in a fund raising event?
- How much money do you usually give to charity?
- What do you think of Warren Buffet and Bill Gates who are planning on donating almost all of their wealth to charity? (combined wealth of around $80 billion as of 2016)
- Do you trust charities?
- Would you rather give money to the poor directly than to give it to a large charity?
- Is it possible for a charity to make the lives of others worse?

Presentation Create a presentation on the largest charity in your country. Include information on what they do and their achievements.