

Communication

Quotations "To effectively communicate, we must realize that we are all different in the way we perceive the world and use this understanding as a guide to our communication with others."

- Tony Robbins

"The more we elaborate our means of communication, the less we communicate."

- J. B. Priestley

Questions

- What is the most common way people communicate? Why?
- What is the simplest form of communication?
- How has this changed over the last 75 years?
- Would you talk to a stranger on the bus, train or plane? What do you or would you talk about? Is this becoming more common?
- What are some excellent conversation starters? Can you think of your five best lines?
- Has technology ruined interpersonal communications? Describe.
- Can you name eight verbal and non-verbal forms of communication?
- Do you believe that people can communicate with the dead, ghosts or other strange and mysterious beings?
- Technology has improved dramatically over the last 100 years, understanding this change, try to extrapolate; how people will communicate in the future?

Presentation Pick a form of communication, Morse Code and Semaphore as just two examples, and create a presentation on the history of this form of communication.